Over 30,000 readers every month!

FOUND IN RESTAURANTS, GAS STATIONS, CLINICS AND STORES AROUND OUR AREA, THE CLARK FORK JOURNAL IS PICKED UP AND READ BY PEOPLE AS THEY'RE EATING, WAITING FOR APPOINTMENTS, OR RELAXING AT HOME. IT'S EASY TO FIND AND THE SIZE MAKES IT A PLEASURE TO READ.

Covering the interests of boomers in Western Montana.

Interest Stories | Art & Culture | Outdoor Rec | Health Beat | Pet Care | Crossword Puzzle

ALSO ARTICLES ON - HISTORY • BUSINESS • EMPLOYMENT • ROADSIDE CHATS • COOKING • FISHING • REAL ESTATE

The Clark Fork Journal is free to our readers. With an average of 200 neighborhood racks, our readership has expanded every year! This is the perfect format for reaching active adults, 44-62.

We cover stories of interest and cultural events that may not be covered by mainstream media.

Owned by Montana residents with publishing experience who care about our community.

Online at clarkforkjournal.com and in print, we make it easy to read either way.

With a minimum 1/4 page annual contract, you get a FREE link to your business' web page on our interactive website.

Full year contracts get free color!

The shelf life of your ad is one month, rather than one day.

Our ad prices are economical and our selection of ad sizes makes sense for large and small businesses alike.

When every dollar counts, it's good to know there are still cost-effective ways to reach your target market.

RESPECTING THE ENVIRONMENT
The Clark Fork Journal is recyclable. More than one person usually reads each paper, and with only one publication per month, we reduce the amount of paper used by dailies. We appreciate it when our customers recycle our papers.
